

Polimaster integrates three units with SE Suite

With aims of improving its processes, the company Polimaster - which creates and develops solutions using pigments and masterbatches - sought integrated management that worked for the group's three companies. On SoftExpert Excellence Suite the group found a solution that offers support for the company and unit integration, boosting efficiency to face market challenges.

"In the SE Suite, we saw the possibility of automating different controls, cutting time and costs when performing the activities considered important for managing the company," said Felipe Reichert, Business Manager at Polimaster. The solution integrates the group's companies, guaranteeing facilitated access and security when transmitting the organization's data. "The possibility for integration between the different modules and with the ERP used by the company and the 100% online interface were differentials we considered when choosing SoftExpert," added Reichert.

He also commented that he was surprised and satisfied with the benefits offered by the SE Suite. "When I watched the presentation, I was sure that this would be the perfect solution for guaranteeing the structured growth of the company," he said. Kyopys, the group company focused on business logistics, is responsible for the transition and management of the new system at the three companies.
